Local News.

Ontario will show wonderful improvements in 1909.

Geo. Tucker has gone to Parma where he has a plastering contract.

W. D. Pool lost a valuable horse last week, the animal dying from a complication of diseases.

Attorney George W. Hayes and wife, of Vale, were in Ontario Saturday on their way to Portland.

The Electric Maze is open every night. Drop in and spend a pleasant hour. The moving pictures are both amusing and instructive.

E. A. Fraser, wife and son and Mrs. A. N. Soliss and son arrived home last evening from their visit to Portland, Seattle and the coast.

Tom Harris sold the J. S.
Pinkston place, on the Owyhee, which he purchased about a year ago from Wm. Harris, to a Payette man this week.

W. E. Hulery, this week, sold a fine thoroughbred Jack to R.
J. Ivers. The animal was shipped to Vale and from there Mr. Ivers took him to his ranch near Red Butte.

R. D. Greer was in from Owyhee Saturday, having finished thrashing. He went back to give possession of his place to Thomas Turnbull, who purchased the same last spring.

Croy & DeBas of the Pastime

Oregon Bldg for Fine Building.
Portland—Oregon Bldg, which has been used with such artistic success as an interior finish in the Portland Commercial Club, in the new Harriman mansion near New York, and other handsome structures, is to be used exclusively in finishing the reception and ballroom in the new building for the International Bureau of American Republics, now near completion in Washington, D.
C.

Near Injunction Case in September.
Portland—Not until September will the hearing of the Harriman injunction against the Oregon Trunk railroad, as relates to the occupancy of the lower 40 miles of the Deschutes canyon in the railroad construction be heard in the federal court. The chief counsel for the Harriman interests in the northwest has announced that he will want that much time to answer certain allegations.

Vale Taxpayers Complain.
Vale—Considerable dissatisfaction has been expressed on the part of taxpayers of this section in regard to the high valuations being made by the assessor. The taxpayers also maintain that the assessments have not been uniform; that some property has been assessed at a high rate and other property of the same value close to it has been assessed barely half as much.
